

Renee Ambush ©

DOD Radio Media Internship Program©

Organization: Destiny Over Drama/(DOD) Radio Media

Position Title: Media & Communications Intern

Location: Remote Option

Commitment: 10–15 hours per week, 3 months minimum

Reports To: Lead Media Strategist / Program Director

Intern Students: 3

*This internship is unpaid

Program Overview

Destiny Over Drama (DOD) Radio Media is a dynamic platform dedicated to uplifting, inspiring, and informing our community through innovative radio programming, digital media, and storytelling. Our internship program is designed to provide hands-on experience in media production, broadcasting, marketing, and content creation. Interns will gain valuable professional skills while actively contributing to the growth and impact of DOD Radio.

Roles & Responsibilities

Interns will support various aspects of media operations, including but not limited to:

1. Media Production & Broadcasting

- Assist with live and pre-recorded show production.
- Operate broadcasting software and audio equipment under supervision.
- Support editing and uploading of radio segments, podcasts, and interviews.
- Research trending topics, music, and community issues for show content.

2. Social Media & Digital Marketing

Current social media @29.8k

- Create engaging social media posts, stories, and promotional graphics.
- Schedule and monitor content across all platforms (Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, YouTube, etc.).
- Track audience engagement and provide analytics reports.
- Support online campaigns to promote shows, events, and special projects.
- Basic Website navigation

3. Content Development

- Assist in writing blogs, scripts, and press releases.
- Help develop creative ideas for new segments and podcast episodes.
- Research artists, influencers, and community leaders for interviews.

4. Administrative & Team Support

- Attend weekly team meetings and brainstorming sessions.(Remotely)
- Maintain organized files of media assets and schedules.
- Support event planning, promotions, and community outreach efforts.
- Provide general administrative support to station leadership.

Desired Skills & Qualifications

- Strong communication and writing skills.
- Interest in media, broadcasting, journalism, or digital content creation.
- Familiarity with social media platforms and basic digital marketing.

- Ability to multitask, meet deadlines, and work collaboratively in a team environment.
- Experience with graphic design, audio/video editing, or podcast production is a plus.

Benefits of Internship

- Hands-on training in media production, broadcasting, and communications.
- Networking opportunities with professionals in media and entertainment.
- Real-world experience to build your resume and portfolio.
- Potential for school credit (if applicable).
- Letter of recommendation upon successful completion.

Application Process

Interested applicants should submit the following:

- Short letter explaining interest in media and DOD Radio
- (1) Work sample (optional – writing, audio, video, or design projects)

Submit applications to: [Destinyoverdramaradio1@gmail.com]

Deadline: On going

Renee Ambush
Founder/CEO

Renee Ambush

reenebambush@gmail.com